I should be but if we don't have a decent turnout I'll just do hpde and take friends for rides. ______ Re: March race Posted by BritRacer - 16 Feb 2015 19:25 I will be there if I get the car finished. Re: March race Posted by cbuzzetti - 18 Feb 2015 14:53 Heck you have had since November to finish the car. Soon I will start on mine..... Cant make the March race. Too much skiing to do before summer. Re: March race Posted by BritRacer - 18 Feb 2015 14:57 That's my problem, I have been on cruises and just now got back from Breckenridge!

They are behind on snow and warmer than normal temps just like the rest of the West. Re: March race Posted by ioport - 01 Mar 2015 10:19 Looks like Ken Huey will be driving in March! (Team 2KenRacing will make all events.) I wanted to take this opportunity to remind everyone that you need to join PRC before the event and it looks like it will be a 2-step process so don't delay. I put in my application for membership today. It did not allow me to pay. NOTE: PRC will be doing an event with HOD at Thunderhill in June. I doubt that 944Spec will want to join them. (I don't know if we are even invited!) See you at Sears Point in 2 weeks.
