great spec racer candidate (Denver CO) Posted by 931Pilot - 20 Jun 2015 22:46 I have an 84 NA for sale. It has had a decent amount of work done to it. Manual steering rack manual sunroof AC delete Engine/head has been rebuilt, with low miles since. 83 forged rods 88 pistons (higher compression) shaved head late tube headers Fidanza Aluminum flywheel 944 turbo Oil cooler. throttle cam. Fresh Oil Suspension: Koni yellow sport front and rear, with m030 front springs (stiffest that was on NA with factory option, to stay "stock" legal) 944 turbo sway bars m030 torsion bars (25.5mm) I think! 15x7 3 piece enkei wheels, On Khumo DOT slicks. Perforamnce Friction track pads/Braided brake lines.

Really the only thing it needs is paint, its guards Red, and primer...
